Dear Sir, —

I am sending some old bills to see if they are of any value to anyone. If they are of no value would you kindly send them back to me.

I also have two British pennies dating 1861 and 1897. One Canadian penny 1895. And an 1867 Italian ten cent piece.

Enclosed find stamped self addressed envelope & bills.

Very Truly Yours.
Mrs. Clark.

Dear Madam :

Answering your letter of August ~~1st~~. The three bills you sent have no value as they are in such poor condition. If they were in good condition they might be worth ten or twenty-five cents each. These bills are from bank now out of existence, and have no redemption value.

The coins ~~you sent~~ have ~~no~~ value.

As per your request we are returning the three bills.

Very truly yours
